I can't advertise in this column, but if praise needs to be sung, like the bank, I'll warm up the vocals. The Ex-Services Club has really gone beyond expectation. Congratulations, and thank you for bringing some wonderful music into our town. Friday nights have really hummed. Attendances in the club have been very good. Last Friday night attendance was down and it was a shame so many missed a brilliant performer.

Phil McKnight is that artist, a very talented one at that. Phil sang three hours straight covering all our favourites in his individual style - just fantastic. His guitar playing was sensational. Brilliant is almost an understatement.

I believe moves are already underway to get him back. Jot the name Phil McKnight in your little black book and don't miss him next time. If you're travelling and that name pops up, make the effort to see him - you won't be disappointed.

"Thank you Phil for a fantastic night's entertainment at my birthday party. All my guests had a great time thanks to your songs, music and energy. Keep on playing! Brad"

Hi Phil

I have never heard such an original sound together with a magnificent voice in all songs you sang at Wayne's surprise wedding 🎩 at Rutherford recently.

Being sixty myself I'm very familiar with music 🎵 from many famous groups in the sixties seventies and eighties. You covered to a treat all songs, having the guests all on the floor totally singing and dancing 🕺 along.

Not to mention you sang song after song without a break for the whole night which was incredible and unheard of in my time..

Well done done Phil and I would love to hear 👂 it all again any time any place with you.

Finally, whoever hires your services in the future would be totally overwhelmed by your magnificent voice.

Thanks 🙏 again

Thanks for such a fun-filled evening! Phil is a great entertainer & had almost everyone on the dance floor with his selection of songs - some oldies but goodies including many I haven't heard for a long time. It was fun trying to remember the words as well as who sang some of them & letting the "young ones" know (as some of them had no idea but still danced). It has been a long time since I danced so much.

We were all totally entertained and would recommend Phil for any upcoming function to get the party going and to keep it going.

Thanks,

Phil McKnight...the man, the legend, the entertainer...Phil was the musical entertainment at our recent wedding...Phil's immediate impact on our friends was the mark of a true professional..at his first song he had the crowd up dancing and laughing and above all enjoying themselves ...the evening was a sensation due to Phil's contribution...for this I thank you Phil...

Hi Phil

Could not be happier with your show for my birthday yesterday. Good to hear someone pumping out quality music without all the trickery and gadgetry that is so often the case.

Your repertoire was amazing as was the length of your performance that ran without a break. You obviously love your work and won over a room full of my friends.<sup>2</sup>
Can I book you for 10 years time when I turn 70?

Kind regards,

Thank you for the music and entertainment at our surprise birthday party.

Your selection of music certainly fit in with the age group and music preference of our guests.

We have had comments from most of our guests as to how great they thought the music was and how friendly and easily you integrated into our family atmosphere.

We would certainly recommend to others that require services such as you provide and feel that we certainly got value for our money.

On a personal level we felt very comfortable in handing the control of our function over to you and were glad that we did.

Again thank and I hope we catch up again.

Best regards
